The Grapevine Blacksmith Shop is located just east of the Cotton Belt Railroad Depot at 707 S. Main St. In 1995, the shop was opened in the Cotton Belt Railroad District and is a replica of the historic Charlie Millican's blacksmith shop formerly located at Main and Texas streets.

Grapevine's resident blacksmith, Will Frary, specializes in large wrought iron sculptures and architectural metal work. He is a veteran artist and known throughout the country and internationally as one of the premier Artist/Blacksmiths in the industry.

His works can be commissioned and collected by prestigious private collectors and corporations alike. His monumental sculptures and metal work can be seen at businesses and in resort towns across the West.
